

Looking for an Angel

When I feel the darkest hours, Loneliness my only friend

And I'm losing all the power; It's so hard to understand

And I'm praying for forgiveness, This long way will never end.

When I feel the night time coming, Shadows rising in my heart

I see all the people running, but I live my life apart

And I ask you for salvation, Oh god, please don't break my heart

Cause I'm looking for an angel, I just need a helping hand

I know you are my little angel, I know you are from heaven sent

This new dawn is like a wonder, all my sorrows has gone by

And my love is getting stronger, when you are still here by my side

And I thank you for your rescue; you will lead me to the light.
